

LHS Honors Vandebilt Catholic High School

By: Sydney Chauvin

On September 26, 2010, tragedy struck Vandebilt Catholic High School. Four students were killed in a car accident on their way home from an LSU game. Two of the four students were on the VCHS football team. Another student was a senior cheerleader. The last student was known to be the biggest fan of the football team.

This Friday the LHS football team will be playing against VCHS. To honor the loss of the four students, money was collected from LHS students. The money raised was then matched by the Athletic Department and will be used to help in the construction of a memorial garden on the VCHS school grounds. Coach Tim will be presenting the check to representatives from the VCHS school faculty. In addition to the presentation of the money, four balloon bouquets will be released in memory of the deceased VCHS students.
